Part IV, line 2b:

SCLARC functions as custodian for the receipt of certain governmental payments and resulting disbursements made on the behalf of regional center clients. The cash balances are segregated from the operating cash accounts of SCLARC and are restricted for client support. A large majority of the client support received comes from social security. The funds are disbursed for residential care and other expenses related to the care of the specific clients of the regional center.

Part X, Line 2:

SCLARC is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701(d).

Part XIII Supplemental Information (continued)

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by SCLARC in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. SCLARC returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
