

This training is funded by the Mental Health Services Act (MHSA) in partnership with the Department of Developmental Services.

South Central Los Angeles Regional Center Presents a free ZOOM training intended for Parents, Direct Support Professionals, Administrators, Friends, and other family members on:

MANAGING CRISIS IN THE MOMENT: MENTAL ILLNESS AND POLICE INVOLVEMENT

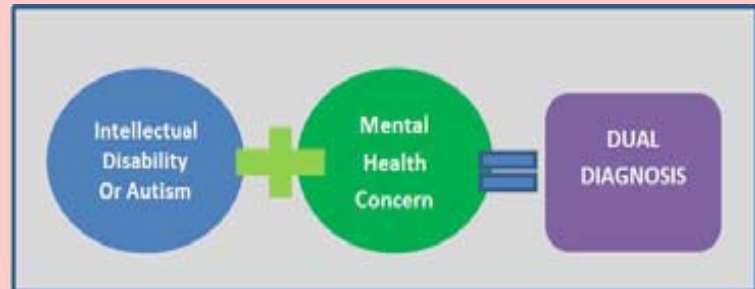

PRESENTER:

MARISA PHAN, REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF THE CRISIS RESPONSE PROJECT (CRP)

Marisa Phan earned her Bachelor of Psychology and her Master of Business Administration with a concentration in Management. Marisa joined CRP in 2008 and has been the Director of the Los Angeles crisis team since 2012. Marisa has worked with the developmentally disabled population since 1998. Previous to working with the crisis team, Marisa has worked as a counselor, teacher, DSP, and IHSS worker. She specializes in working with clients with autism who are non-verbal.

TRAINING TOPICS:

- Provide crisis prevention, intervention, training, and follow-up services as support to community homes, day programs, and families
- Tools for assisting caregivers with crisis de-escalation, reinforcement strategies, and approaches to avoid
- Overview of common mood, anxiety, and psychotic disorders will be provided
- What to expect when law enforcement responds to a call for assistance and how to communicate with police officers such as helpful information to share, questions to be expected, and typical procedures practiced

WHEN:

Saturday
November 6, 2021
10:00 am—12:00 pm

WHERE:

MEETING ID:
828 3524 2119
VIA ZOOM

PLEASE RSVP BY:

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2021

<https://us06web.zoom.us/j/82835242119>