

No-Cost Emotional Support for the People of Los Angeles

Get Mental Wellness Support Through Nature's Challenges

In times of natural upheaval like the devastatingly severe fires in January, AlterCareLine offers a comforting presence in Los Angeles County. We provide thoughtful support that helps individuals and communities better cope with and regain emotional balance.

Trained People Providing Compassionate Emotional Care

Whether facing the aftermath of a natural disaster or daily life's stresses, AlterCareline is your safe space for mental well-being. Our Support Specialists are here to offer free, empathetic guidance, aiding you in your journey to find peace, resources, and stability.

Dedicated to Supporting You

AlterCareLine aspires to be a supportive community, guiding you towards positive mental health, especially in challenging times. Reach out through our website and let us help you on your path to wellness.

*We've helped 200,000+
Californians and counting!*

In Partnership with the Community Crisis Program

Email us or visit our website today to schedule a one on one session with a Peer Counselor!

We are here to help!
Schedule Your Appointment at:
www.altercareline.com
outreach@altercareline.com