

As uncertainty remains over what another Donald Trump presidency might mean for the Eastside's immigrant community, the Beat has compiled a list of resources in the neighborhood and greater L.A. area. ➔

Correction:

Immigration Center for Women and Children
Location: 634 S. Sprint St. #702
Contact: (213) 614-1165

Esperanza Immigration Rights Project
Location: 1530 James M. Wood Blvd.
Contact: (213) 251-3505

Click the link in bio for more resources 🔗

Immigration Resources in Boyle Heights

El Centro de Ayuda

A nonprofit organization promoting social, emotional, academic and economic self-sufficiency, offers a variety of different services, coaching and assistance for the Boyle Heights community. It operates out of Boyle Heights City Hall.

- Location: 2130 E. 1st Street Suite 110
- Contact: (323) 526-9301

L.A. LGBT Center – Mi Centro

The Los Angeles LGBT Center's Immigration Law Project provides legal consultations, court representation and holistic support to protect members of the LGBT community. They assist those looking to apply for permanent residency, naturalization, family and marriage petitions and other administrative relief.

- Closest location: 553 S. Clarence St.
- Contact: (323) 993-7670

Proyecto Pastoral

A community-building nonprofit empowering the neighborhood and its residents through education, leadership and service grassroots projects. One aspect of the organization is its Guadalupe Homeless Project, to provide housing for those in need, including unhoused refugees and immigrants in need.

- Location: 135 N. Mission Rd.
- Contact: (323) 881-0018

Immigration resources in L.A. area

CHIRLA

An advocacy organization founded in the 1980s that has pushed for immigrant rights, organizing, educating and defending immigrants and refugees.

- Location: 2533 W. 3rd St., #101
- Contact: (213) 358-1333

CARECEN

Helps support Central Americans and all immigrants by defending human and civil rights, working for social and economic justice and promoting cultural diversity.

- Location: 2845 W. 7th Street
- Contact: (213) 358-7800

Immigration Center for Women and Children

A nonprofit legal organization that provides free and affordable services to underrepresented immigrants in California and Nevada.

- Location: 2533 W. 3rd St., #101
- Contact: (213) 358-1333

Esperanza Immigration Rights Project

Access to direct representation in court and pro-bono legal services for immigrants in the city, including those facing the threat of possible deportation.

- Location: 2845 W. 7th Street
- Contact: (213) 358-7800

Loyola Immigrant Justice Clinic

Their mission is to advance the rights of the Eastside immigrant population through direct legal services, education and community empowerment.

- Location: 919 Albany St.
- Contact: (213) 252-7409

Asian Americans Advancing Justice

The organization offers free legal help, engages in impact litigation and policy advocacy. Its support lines are available in a variety of languages.

- Location: 1145 Wilshire Blvd.
- Contact: (213) 977-7500

Immigration resources at Eastside colleges

Dream Resource Center at East L.A. Community College

The Dream Resource Center offers free immigration legal services for ELAC students and employees. Virtual and in-person appointments are available.

- Location: E1-142 on the East L.A. College campus
- Contact: (323) 415-5483

Dreamer Resource Center at Cal State L.A.

The Glazer Family Dreamers Resource Center offers free legal assistance with DACA and other immigration-related needs to Cal State L.A. students, faculty and staff.

- Location: 4th floor of the Student Services building at Cal State L.A.
- Contact: (323) 415-5483

Many college and university systems offer resources and services to immigrant and undocumented students on campus.

Click the link in bio for more resources.

