Tengo Miedo (I'm scared)

Un libro enfocado en las habilidades de afrontamiento para hijos de inmigrantes A book focused on coping skills for children of immigrants

Marlene Hyerta

Ha sido muy difícil NO escuchar de lo que está pasando. It's been really hard to NOT hear about what is happening.

Tal vez estabas viendo televisión? Maybe you were watching TV?

Con tanto en nuestra mente, es posible que te sientas: With so much on our mind, it's possible for you to feel:

There are 3 areas of our brain that help us with our reaction

En momentos de estrés nuestro cerebro nos hace reaccionar de 4 maneras:

In moments of stress our brain will respond in 4 different ways:

En estos momentos es importante que nuestras acciones nos mantengan seguros y fuera de peligro. Entendemos que estamos llenos de ira y desesperación pero nuestra seguridad y nuestros derechos importan.

In these moments it is important that our actions keep us safe and out of danger. We understand that we all feel full of rage and frustration but our safety and our rights matter.

We go to great heights and face them without fear.

Llevamos el sazón, donde quiera que vayamos

We bring that spice wherever we go.

Aprendimos a soñar observando a nuestros padres. Ellos no se rindieron y nosotros tampoco lo haremos.

We learned to dream by watching our parents. They never gave up and neither will we.

Por último, quiero que recuerden esto: No es ninguna debilidad pedir ayuda. Somos una comunidad y todos necesitamos apoyo.

Lastly, I want you all to remember this: It is not a weakness to ask for help. We are part of a community and we all need support.
